Building Warriors

First Responder & Family Counseling

Building Warriors is a peer run nonprofit organization devoted to the provision of wellness services and training for emergency responders and their families. Their vision is to create a system of support that preserves pride, encourages reaching out, and cultivates a warrior's mindset with a calm, clear peace of mind, body, and heart. Their responder counselors and peer specialists are on a mission to provide direct services and training to support emergency responders, healthcare providers, and their families. Building Warriors provides counseling services for individuals, couples, groups, families, adolescents, and children. They only serve first responders and their families. Our clinicians have a range of specialties specifically for emergency responders.
